

Forsyth Jail & Prison Ministries
Winston-Salem, North Carolina
Jail/Prison Chaplain, October 2023

The Forsyth Jail & Prison Ministries is extending a call for a Chaplain's position. The person will have chaplaincy responsibilities in the detention center (jail) and the correctional center (prison). Other duties will be leading and overseeing programs in the correctional center, area churches, and the local community. The Chaplain will provide ministry to the inmates, institutional staff and families of inmates. Duties are in four categories:

1. Direct ministry (counseling, teaching, and preaching)
2. Planning and leading programs
3. Administration (recruiting & supervising volunteers)
4. Community Relations (developing community support)

Applicants need to possess a sound theology while demonstrating a heart for practical Christian ministry. The candidate should exhibit strong organizational skills and initiative. The below requirements are a necessity for the position.

- Graduate of an accredited 4 year college or university
- Graduate from an (ATS) accredited school of theology or divinity with minimum of Masters of Divinity
- Ordained or community faith affiliated
- In good standing with faith group
- CPE: Minimum of one year (4 units) or the equivalency for Clinical Chaplain I

Please send a resume and a one-page essay featuring the applicant's interest, qualifications and experiences to personnel@forsythjpm.org or by postal mail by November 15, 2023 to:

Search Committee
Forsyth Jail & Prison Ministries
P.O. Box 11802
Winston-Salem, NC 27116

Further information is not available by phone. A complete job description is available online at: <https://forsythjpm.org/job/>.