1. Federal Bond Program
A fidelity bond is a special kind of insurance policy that protects an employer against any business losses due to employee theft of money or property. The US Government has a program that issues a special fidelity bond to insure ex-prisoners. It is issued free to the employer. The bonding can be in effect on the first day of work. Take this information with you to a job interview and tell them you can be bonded. For more information contact: The Federal Bonding Program, c/o The McLaughlin Company, 1725 DeSales St., NW, Suite 700, Washington DC 20036. 800-233-2258 and 202 293 5566 or via the Internet at www.bonds4jobs.com

2. Work Opportunity Tax Credit Program
The Work Opportunity Tax Credit (WOTC) is a federal tax credit program available to employers who hire new employees that have been incarcerated. The tax credit is used to reduce the federal tax liability of private-for-profit employers. Employers can claim a maximum federal income tax credit of $2,400.00 per eligible worker. Proper forms must be completed and filed when the job begins. The exact amount of net savings depends upon each employer’s tax bracket plus the amount of qualified wages paid. For more information contact the Employment Security Commission of North Carolina, Attn: Applicant Services Unit; WOTC/WtW, P.O. Box 27625, Raleigh, North Carolina 27611-7625, 919 733 4896, fax 919 733 3010.

For I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope.

Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. You will seek me and find me; when you seek me with all your heart . . . and I will bring you back . . .

Jeremiah 29:11-14

The Forsyth Jail and Prison Ministries prepares offenders for release, as well as supports, assists, and unites ex-offenders in the Forsyth community. Offenders and ex-offenders receive guidance in meeting employment, family, and housing needs.

The Forsyth Jail and Prison Ministries is an inter-denominational ministry that empowers inmates to re-direct their lives, find reconciliation with one other, the community, and God.

We are grateful for the support of the community in general, and to The Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust in particular, for making this program and handbook a reality.

"For I know the plans I have for you"
I'm getting out—

You've thought about it a million times and yet it's hard to imagine what life after incarceration is going to be like. You may feel Alone, Uncertain, Tense, and Scared about returning.

Every month this county receives over 100 men and women returning from jails and prisons. About 1 out of 3 will mess up during the first 6 months after release and go back. It's hard. You'll need folks to help.

Nobody can do it for you but no one can do it alone!

This Booklet will not help – IF YOU

• just want a place to land before hitting the streets again
• want to repeat old habits, old behavior with old results
• aren't willing to risk and start everything over

This Booklet is for you -

IF you want to leave out better than you came in and you know it's time for you to step up, step out, and step on! But you have to be looking for a plan to work, not a scheme to get by.

God has a plan for your life. You may not know what's ahead but He does. I hope you'll let Him show you that plan—one step at a time.

This booklet can help because it's the work of men and women who slept in the same cells as you. They worked God's plan—and you can as well!

Folks are praying for you and your plan to prosper.

Hello, my name is Paul. Here's my story.

At the age of 19 I was sentenced to the NC Department of Correction to serve a 53-year sentence. There have been many lessons for me along the way. Some came easy, while others hit hard. I accepted the fact that where I am today is the result of my choices and past. There is no one else to blame and no excuses to be made.

Right now I’m 33. During this time I have grown up a lot. I realized that my lot in life had to be more than what I was living. Too many opportunities to grow or go home have been wasted. Now where I was once without direction, by the grace of God I am now living with a sense of purpose. Today I have character as opposed to being a character.

Fortunately, I heard the buzz on the yard about the Plan to Prosper (PtP) program that deals with real life issues of inmates and ex-offenders. The program has been instrumental in reinforcing the key values for my life. Most of all it’s given a powerful message of self worth, encouraging us to think outside of the box about the future.

I now see that a good life is not something that I have to marvel at in others. It is just as available to me as anyone else. First I must decide what I want and need to accomplish. Then I have to outline and incorporate an achievable plan. I must have a plan – one that I am so committed to that no one can divert me away.

PtP also taught me that I do not have to be defined by my failures. My attitude, more than anything else, will be the most important asset for a successful transition. Nelson Mandela once said, “I am convinced that I have learned a great deal more from my failures than I ever will my triumphs.” Today, I believe this wholeheartedly.

More than anything else I hope my words will encourage all those who struggle to stay encouraged and remember – sometimes the sourest lemons make the sweetest lemonade!
AN INMATE’S 23rd PSALM

An ex-offender named David wrote this as he returned to visit the same courtroom where he was tried 18 years earlier as a youth. The man has been out of jail, sober, and serving God faithfully for over 30 years. David wrote this paraphrase of the famous psalm after reflecting back on his experience of finding God's love behind bars.

Even when I thought that I could stand by myself, and not need Him, the Lord has always been my partner. I turned to Him after I got locked up, I shall not rush to get out before He is ready;

He makes me avoid the card games and drugs, so I can find some quiet time alone,

He shows me where I can find some peace at night on my bunk; He gives me back the serenity I lost.

He keeps me straight and near to those who help me to grow; because of who He is.

I have a lot to face before and after I am released, but I am not scared, for even behind bars He is with me.

I am reassured and can wait for good things because He is close.

You prepare a place for me even around those I have hurt, you have singled me out to receive a clear mind and a new heart; my forgiveness is more than I deserve and more than I can take in.

Surely I will invite your love, sobriety, and patience to accompany me every single day and I shall remain in His care for ever.

If you always do what you’ve always done, you’ll always get what you’ve always had!

THIS AIN’T NO JOKE!
• your situation is stressful - Worried about home, lost the job, no place to live, Something broke, your family fell apart, money ran out, drugs helped you make it,
• no one was there for you, the streets offered more than home, I never fit anywhere, YOU HAVE A LOT TO DEAL WITH

FIND SOME SUPPORT
• talk to someone – family, friend, volunteer, chaplain
• ask for help

BEFORE RELEASE
• get busy in positive programs and activities
• stay out of the jail/prison drama
• clear your head – leave the blame and bitterness behind
• if you have a drug/drinking problem, get on it
• get in a program

BE CAREFUL
• don’t share personal items, unprotected sex is dangerous
• deal with medical issues, test for HIV, STD’s, and Hep C
• you need to know – testing can save your life
• adapting to life behind bars was hard but you made it

Plan Each Day to Take One Step Forward
GET READY

Enroll and take advantage of programs designed to assist you after release.

Get the documents that you’ll need
- Social Security card
- Documentation of education, school, correspondence courses, training seminars
- Birth Certificate
Clear outstanding warrants/charges
Get someone to serve as a mentor/shepherd to watch over you

STRESSED OUT RIGHT BEFORE GETTING OUT?

Can’t sleep, scared, what’s going to happen?
No one to depend on, getting close to my day, disappointing everyone, afraid of being alone, where do I start?

Change your thinking and see the old habits that don’t work.

CHANGE THE PLAN—CHANGE THE GAME

Put as much effort into adapting to life outside as you did to adapting to life inside
Have you tried new positive things?
Don’t look back to the old places, move forward to new ones
Ask someone who has changed to show you HOW

LISTEN TO SOMEONE WHO IS DIFFERENT

What are they doing different?
Get with those folk, take their advice, learn a new way to live — outside the walls
Let go of the old plan and let God give you a new plan
Asking for help isn’t easy — but neither is being incarcerated

Let go of stinking thinking!!

YOU NEED A PLAN

You need a real plan with real people — not a false scheme based on lies.

Don’t lie to yourself, don’t make excuses, order your steps.

A plan with real possibilities can be yours.

You need a group for support — because it’s not easy going back home.

Learn what is out there and ask for what you need.

A plan will identify your needs, who can help, and where to go.

Things change — don’t get discouraged.

Stay focused on your goals, follow the plan.

Remain open, keep it honest.

Give yourself a break and stay off the street.

AFTER YOU'RE OUT
I'm ok now, this is no big deal, don't care, smarter than before, folks on the block will help
Got my game back and ready to take it all, hooked up and locked down

Look Where You Are Running—
It's not easy – 2 of 3 ex-offenders return in 3 years
Each bid behind bars gets longer – they always go up
It's hard 'cause the first 6 months out are the most difficult

Don't forget what put you in the box
Don't forget what life was like before you fell

Remember the first day locked up

It's no joke – IT'S YOUR LIFE

BEYR
TRIGGERS TO TRAGEDY

A trigger receives a little energy from the finger that produces a BIG BANG from a gun. For offenders/addicts a trigger is anything that moves you toward relapse. Triggers can be obvious - smelling pot smoke or tasting a sip of beer. They can be as innocent as seeing a TV commercial or hearing a particular song. Learning what sparks us in the wrong direction is crucial to gaining control over destructive desires.

Long before a person relapses there are warning signs that come before the actual event. Listen to your life and become familiar with your patterns of triggers, thoughts, and behavior. For example, if you have a problem that involves sex, you must avoid suggestive TV and movies with nudity. These can be triggers that spark a relapse in crime.

START BY

TRACKING your triggers by honestly reviewing past behaviors and cravings that come with them
WATCHING for thinking errors like believing you can make resist your triggers without help
ASKING Which events, circumstances, or mental conditions have led to your addictive actions?
  What inaccurate thoughts do you believe?
  What triggers led to your using?
FINDING A SPONSOR or mature friend to hold you accountable, to help you recognize your triggers and avoid them
DEVELOPING a strategy for daily events that are triggers
LOWER STRESS - Monitor strong emotions/experiences like: Anger, frustration, social pressure, boredom, exhaustion, high-risk friends, death of a loved one, people’s reactions to changes you are making in your life

WARNING SIGNS OF A RELAPSE

1. After first trying to change your life, you may encounter these warning signs of a relapse:
   - Increased Stress
   - Change in Thinking
   - Change in Feeling
   - Change in Behavior

2. Then you may stop paying attention to feelings or being honest and worry about yourself while denying that you are worried. At this point you may start to avoid anyone or anything that forces you to be honest about your feelings and behavior. Life then gets hard and one crisis arises after another. Some signs are:
   - Feeling powerless and completely focused on a crisis
   - Depression — unable to plan — begin to react to events
   - Cannot be flexible to deal with surprises and changes

3. Confusion surrounds you — friends are irritating, can’t manage stress, loss of memory, deep depression, low motivation to be assertive, loss of sleep, loss of daily structure, irregular attendance at work/home/AA meetings, self pity, loss of impulse control, lying to friends/family, deep loneliness and social isolation.

4. Finally you start socially using again. Then it takes more and more to feel the same relief. You convince yourself that all your problems can be controlled or you just need to escape awhile. Feelings of shame flood over you. Health problems increase and join the loss of job, problems with family. You become ill, break the law, and your life spins totally out of control. Problems caused by the addiction increase.

GET HELP BEFORE IT’S TOO LATE!! Pray, talk to a friend, family member, or a professional. You can’t do this alone — SEEK HELP! The next step may be the HOSPITAL, JAIL, or the CEMETERY.
TWELVE STEPS

The "Twelve Steps" are the core of the A.A. program of personal recovery from alcoholism. Experience suggests that members who make an earnest effort to follow these Steps and to apply them in daily living seem to get far more out of A.A. than do those members who seem to regard the Steps casually. Many members feel that the Steps are vital. Here is the text of the Twelve Steps, which first appeared in Alcoholics Anonymous, the A.A. book of experience:

1. We admitted we were powerless over alcohol - that our lives had become unmanageable.
2. Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.
3. Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him.
4. Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves.
5. Admitted to God, to ourselves and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs.
6. Were entirely ready to have God remove all these defects of character.
7. Humbly asked Him to remove our short-comings.
8. Made a list of all persons we had harmed, and became willing to make amends to them all.
9. Made direct amends to such people wherever possible, except when to do so would injure them or others.
10. Continued to take personal inventory and when we were wrong promptly admitted it.
11. Sought through prayer and meditation to improve our conscious contact with God, as we understood Him, praying only for knowledge of His will for us and the power to carry that out.
12. Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.

FINDING SUPPORT IN A CHURCH

Ex-offenders believe that the most important connection you may have is with a group of believers in a church. In fact, they insist that one can successfully start a new life ONLY in a community of support.

SHARING YOUR BACKGROUND

Some folks will accept you while others remain scared because of your background. GO SLOWLY – share your story with others over time. Allow them to get to know you. Make sure it’s a safe place to make new friends. Not everyone needs to know your prison past up front, but share your past experience with the pastor. Most churches don’t have many ex-offenders – that world will be new to them. Be patient. They will learn to trust you. This takes time.

FIND A MENTOR

Ask the pastor to help you find someone of your same sex to serve as a mentor. This mentor should be a friend who is not afraid to confront you. The mentor and the church can help in other areas of your life - finding work, beating an addiction, or managing your money.

AS YOU LOOK - REMEMBER

Pray and start on the first Sunday after release. Ask the chaplain and volunteers you respect about their suggestions. Ask someone for a ride—a friend, co-worker or sponsor to their church. Meet with the pastor to discuss your situation and the church. The pastor can assist in finding connections, a job, counseling, and support. Has the church had any preparation in receiving ex-inmates? Which church worships in a style that you find comfortable? Will you be challenged there to grow in the Lord? Seek a church with people who offer encouragement, accountability, and growth

START! - attending regularly where God is leading you.

SOCIAL SECURITY REQUIREMENT

It is required by law that you present DMV with a valid Social Security card.

When making application for an identification card, learners permit or driver license, it is required by law that you provide DMV with a valid Social Security card. If you are not eligible for a Social Security card, you must provide documentation issued by the United States Government indicating legal presence. By law, the DMV may disclose a Social Security Number only as follows:

- For the purpose of administering drivers license laws.
- To the Department of Health and Human Services, Child Support Enforcement Program for the purpose of establishing paternity or child support or enforcing a child support order.
- To the Department of Revenue for the purpose of verifying taxpayer identity.
- To the Office of Indigent Defense Services of the Judicial Department for the purpose of verifying the identity of a represented client and enforcing a court order to pay for the legal services rendered.
- To each county jury commission for the purpose of verifying the identity of deceased persons whose names should be removed.

The Social Security number on an application will be kept confidential and will not be printed on your driver license, learner permit or identification card.
PROOF OF INSURANCE

For a driver license you will also need to show proof of Automobile Liability Insurance if you will be driving a personal vehicle or something other than a fleet vehicle (rental car, company car). The N.C. General Assembly has enacted legislation to require some (but not all) driver license applicants in North Carolina to submit proof of automobile liability insurance coverage in order to obtain a North Carolina driver license. Proof of liability insurance coverage applies to those:

- Applying for an original license, including transfers from out-of-state;
- Whose licenses are being restored after revocation or suspension; or Awarded a "Limited Driving Privilege" by the court.

Certification of liability insurance coverage must be submitted on DMV Form DL-123, or an original liability insurance policy, binder or an insurance card and must come from an insurance company licensed to do business in North Carolina. These documents must show:

- Applicant's name;
- Effective date of policy;
- Expiration date; and date the policy was issued

Form DL-123, binders and certificates are valid only for 30 days from the date of issuance. This does not apply to applicants who do not own currently registered motor vehicles and who do not operate nonfleet private passenger motor vehicles that are owned by other persons. In such cases it is required that a certification of exemption (DL-123A) be signed at the driver license office.

The exemption restricts the driver to the operation of "Fleet Vehicles Only". To remove the restriction the driver must pay a $10.00 fee and submit DMV Form DL-123.

IDENTIFICATION CARDS

Any resident of North Carolina can be issued a special identification card provided he or she does not have a valid driver license. An ID card, like a driver license, is valid for a period of five or eight years, depending on your age. The cost for an ID is $10.00.

Requirements:

Getting a North Carolina Identification Card is just like getting your driver license, without the tests. For an ID card you will need:

- Proof of Residency;
- Proof of Age and Identity;

It is required by law that you present DMV with a valid Social Security card. If you are not eligible for a Social Security card, you must provide documentation issued by the United States Government indicating legal presence.

A more detailed explanation of the above requirements can be found in the previous sections.
RESTORATION OF VOTING RIGHTS

MISDEMEANANTS AND PERSONS AWAITING TRIAL

In North Carolina, being convicted of a misdemeanor or awaiting trial for a misdemeanor/felony does not mean that one loses his right to vote. Such a person may vote while serving his sentence by following these instructions.

If one is not already registered to vote, he can request a registration form by writing or calling the County Board of Elections office. When completing the registration form, a misdemeanant should use the address of the residence where he will be living after release. This form must be mailed into the Board of Elections Office in the county of one’s home residence. The Office must receive the form and information at least 25 days before the election.

If one is going to complete the sentence before the election, he may vote at the proper voting location or use an Absentee ballot. If he is not going to complete the sentence before the election, he may vote using an Absentee ballot. The Absentee ballot may be requested at the same time that a request of a registration form from the County Board of Elections is made.

An Absentee ballot must be requested at least 50 days before the election. When using an Absentee ballot, the following articles must accompany the ballot:
- a copy of a current ID with photo
- a copy of a document proving the residence of the voter (bill, check, bank statement)

Follow the previous instructions regarding the use of an Absentee ballot or contact the local County Board of Elections for additional instructions.

VOTING RIGHTS — FORMER FELONS

In North Carolina, when a person is convicted of a felony, they lose their citizenship rights, including the right to vote. However, the right to vote is restored automatically when the person completes all of the terms of the sentence (including parole, probation, and restitution). To avoid difficulties in voting or registering one should request a Certificate of Restoration of Forfeited Rights of Citizenship from his releasing officer. This certificate is not necessary but may make it easier.

In order to vote in a NC election, after finishing a sentence and parole, one should follow these instructions:

Even if one has already registered to vote before a felony conviction, he must register to vote again after completing the sentence. First, obtain a registration form by writing or calling the County Board of Elections office. When completing that form, use the address of the residence where you are living. Second, mail the form into the County Board of Elections. The Office must receive the form at least 25 days before the election.

If one is going to complete the sentence before the election, he may vote at the proper voting location or use an Absentee ballot. Follow the previous instructions regarding the use of an Absentee ballot or contact the local County Board of Elections for additional instructions.

MAKING YOURSELF MORE MARKETABLE

A survey asked hiring managers to share what job seekers with criminal records can do to make themselves more marketable to employers. Here’s what they recommend:

- Be upfront and honest about the conviction, and stress what you learned from it;
- Be willing to work your way up;
- Stay positive;
- Prepare while you are in prison (take classes, get a degree or participate in vocational training);
- Don't apply to jobs where your record would automatically disqualify you;
- Volunteer;
- Take freelance or temporary assignments;
- Consider joining the military;
- Start your own business;
- Monitor what is said on social media.

10 IMPORTANT GUIDES FOR YOUR JOB INTERVIEW

An interview is a big moment. You may get nervous. It's an emotional roller coaster. Here are some easy guidelines to help you make the best impression possible.

1. Be on time. Give yourself plenty of extra time to get there so you can relax and catch your breath.
2. Bring your references and all necessary papers. Even if you’ve already given the company the names and numbers of your references, bring them anyway.
3. Go into the interview alone. If someone drives you, ask the person to wait in the car or at a nearby coffee shop. If the company has a reception area, the person might wait there. Don’t take children.
4. Look the interviewer in the eye. Show interest and confidence. Eye contact is telling. Staring at the floor or out the window says nothing good. Listen to questions and answer them as best you can. Stick to the subject.
5. Don’t make excuses. If you talk about past failures, talk about lessons learned. Take responsibility and switch to talking about your strengths. Share your criminal record and what you have done since then to change, grow, and improve your life!
6. Watch your body language. Don’t fold your arms in front of you like a wall separating you from the interviewer. Most of the time leave your hands in your lap. Don’t slouch in a chair or lean back. Sit up straight or lean slightly forward.
7. Don’t interrupt when the interviewer is talking to you.
8. Ask about the next step. Before getting up to leave, ask what is the next step. Then smile and shake hands firmly while making eye contact.
9. Be positive and don’t complain about anything.
10. Write a thank-you letter. This will set you apart from other candidates. It tells the interviewer you’re interested.

CREATING YOUR RESUME

A résumé is a list or summary of your work experience and education. It organizes the facts about you in written form, describes what you have done and are able to do. It is important because many employers want to see your experience before granting an interview. A résumé also makes you organize your thinking and what you have to offer.

- A résumé should be neat in appearance and typed
- Include your jobs while incarcerated, skills you have picked up and present them a positive light
- Be clear, brief and use bullet points with short sentences
- Have key phrases and use action words like “prepared,” “managed,” “developed,” and “created.”
- Add percentages, dollar totals, and numbers
- Highlight your strengths, and what is most relevant to the potential employer
- Put the strong and most relevant points first where they are more apt to be read
- Match the needs of the hiring company - tailor your resume to the position
- In typing - the font size should not be smaller than 10 point, and the length of your resume should be 1-2 pages
- Ask a friend to read it before sending - take their comments into consideration, and revise your resume

AREA RESOURCES

The following section contains various resources in the greater Forsyth County/Piedmont region. They are divided into various groups that are of value to the ex-offender returning to the community. Some groups may appear in more than one section.

Most offer supplies and services for free. But others may require a fee for assistance. Be sure to have a clear understanding of the details of their services.

The contact information for each was verified shortly before printing. Remember that certain information may have recently changed. You need to contact each organization before visiting.

There may be other resources not included here. These are all we could find and confirm while making the booklet.

There is help out there if you ask for it.

It’s good to know someone still believes in you. That will help you, while in and out of prison. Some folks helped me to be a believer in myself, and let me know there are other ways! My eyes are open now.

JERMELLE
YOUR PLAN TO PROSPER CONTRACT

All areas of your life are interconnected. This contract helps you achieve your goals by creating a concrete Plan to Prosper. The first step is to develop 2-3 goals in each of the 9 areas. Your life can be transformed by creating goals and following the steps.

For example, a family goal might be to re-connect with your son. Enter that in the GOAL #1 box. In order to accomplish this you might have to: make amends with his mother, commit to spending weekends with your son, and meeting with his teachers in school. These 3 plans would be ACTION STEPS. You would write them in the last box of the row opposite GOAL #1. Your progress is recorded under the columns, BEFORE RELEASE, 30 DAYS OUTSIDE and 90 DAYS FREE.

If you want to prosper, you need a plan. The plan is CRITICAL to a new life and avoiding a return to crime and incarceration. As you make progress with the plan, your new life becomes clearer.

Every day you MUST work on at least ONE ACTION STEP. Write it down the night before and check it off at the end of the day. After achieving a GOAL, it is vital to create a new one.

Find a trusted person to offer support and hold you accountable in working the plan. A NEW BEGINNING IS STRESSFUL AND HARD. NEW PLANS WILL HAVE TO REPLACE SETBACKS. This tool has guided hundreds of formerly incarcerated people into a NEW LIFE.

Listen to the wisdom of ex-offenders and identify your goals for your personal Plan to Prosper contract on the following pages.

START NOW – LET GOD GIVE YOU A PLAN TO PROSPER AND TURN YOUR DREAMS INTO DEEDS!

9 KEY AREAS FOR YOUR LIFE

Successful ex-offenders have identified these 9 categories as essential for your new start.

A. FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS
One of the hardest—personal lives are hard to mend. Your children and loved ones need you. You have to earn your way back with them one day at a time! They want to trust you—give them a reason.

B. EDUCATION
After prison/jail you need to grow and add life and job skills. Maximize your talents and abilities. Invest in your future.

C. EMPLOYMENT
Go to work immediately. This produces money, occupies time, provides stability, and allows progress. You have been working for the prison—now you can get something in return that will build a future.

D. SPIRITUALITY
Trust in God, talk to God, and listen to God. His help will be there when challenges and fears come. Spend time alone with Him daily. Join a group to help your spiritual growth. This is the glue that makes it stick.

E. HEALTH/FITNESS

F. DRUG/ALCOHOL ABUSE
More than 75% of offenders have these problems. This led them to jail. You won't stay out if you don't get good help. Work AA and NA. Find a sponsor. Make the meetings. Life is good off drugs.

G. HOUSING
You gotta sleep and rest in a safe place. Find a good environment.

H. FINANCIAL
It ain't how much you make—it's how much you keep. Make a budget and be careful. Money can be as bad as a drug.

I. SERVICE/INVOLVEMENT
Give back! Help and share God's blessings to others!

Since I've been locked up I've seen a lot of bad things, bad decisions made, and bad results happening because of these bad decisions. After being incarcerated I've learned to appreciate my freedom, depend on myself, because people will let you down. Stay away from all trouble – and trouble makers, surround yourself with positive people. Pick a positive plan and stay focused and maintain it at all times.
